"BOOSTER'S DAY" TO HELP ATHLETES

Lexington, Va., April 19.—Tomorrow will be "Boosters' Day" in Lexington, a holiday having been practically declared on the occasion of the visit of the general assembly to the city. The citizens of Lexington will be glad to spend money anywhere except at the university. The occasion for "Boosters' Day" is to boost the finances of the Washington and Lee Athletic Association. The general assembly is composed of the ways and means committee having "Boosters' Day" in charge.

EVERYBODY WILL GO ON EXCURSION

Hundreds of local fans to attend Opening Game in Washington Thursday.
The Richmond special leaving here at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning and bound for Washington, will be about the biggest thing in the excursion line ever run out of this city. Putting it mildly nearly everybody in Richmond wants to attend that opening game between Washington and Boston. If possible there is more local interest in the Washington Club than there is in the Richmond Club. The general feeling is that the Washington Club is the best in the league, and Ayrers have become members of the Senators, with another very appreciable part of the Griffith machine. The Washington Club is a part of Richmond. Everywhere and on all sides there is a feeling of interest in the game.
